SOCIETY IN BALTIMORE.

Season There Promises to Be

Baltimore, Jan. 9.—Baltimore society is full of events this month, and will continue o be very gay until Lent.

With four cotilhon clubs and private alls, there is all the dancing that the most light-footed could wish, while afternoon affairs are of daily occurrence..
Out-of-door life is comparatively a new

The debutantes are having it all their own way this winter and have had no end of entertainments given in their honor. Among the most notable have been the ball given by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Buchanar for their daughter, Lily Buchanan, the ball given by Miss Ethel Hollins Rumbold, and will give a large reception to introduce to society her daughter, Mass Mary Patter-son Harris, who has decided to come out since Christmas.

The debutante of the winter who is the ecided beauty and who would have been most admired is Miss Agnes Robinson, : daughter of Mrs. John Moneure Robinson. out whose debut was postponed on account of the death of her aunt, Miss Conway and of her uncle, Mr. Moncure Robins of Philadelphia.
